THE COUNT

```
                    Pantry                      Bathroom
                    Matches                     Mirror
                    Garlic                      Watch
                                                Toilet

Oven (at Nite)      Kitchen                     Hall in Castle          Outside        Closed gate
Nail File           Oven                                                of Castle      Crowd of Dark lens           Dumb-waiter                                         Coat of Arms   Townspeople
                                                                        Bell Pull

                    Workroom            Closet
                    Rubber Mallet       Small Vial
                    Locked Door         3 No-Doz
                    Vent Note           Dust

                                                        Bedroom             On Ledge
                                                        Window              Flagpole
                                                        Brass Bed

                    Dungeon             Crypt
                    Iron Rings          Vent, Sign
                    Dark Pit            (No Smoking                                     By a Box Ext.Cigarettes)

                    Pit-Torch           Long N-S            In Bed          Window Box
                                        Passage             Sheets          Daisies
                                                            Pillow          Window

                                                                        Doorless Rm.
                                                                        Full Size
                                                                        Portrait
```